Indiana Professional Recovery Program

Terry Harman with the Indiana Professional Recovery Program (IPRP) presented a proposal to the Board regarding serving as an optional monitoring program for the Indiana Board of Podiatric Medicine.

IPRP provides a comprehensive monitoring and accountability program to assist impaired health care professionals on their road to sustained recovery. IPRP will work with the Indiana Board of Podiatric Medicine regarding any Board orders for licensed podiatrists to obtain evaluations or enter into a monitoring contracts which report monthly and quarterly to the Board with any issues found.

IPRP can be described by the four components that serve as the foundation of every aspect of the program:

1. Appropriate and effective intake process and evaluations
2. Non-biased, appropriate and individualized treatment referral
3. Participation accountability and advocacy and/or reporting
4. Complete and timely transparency between all vested parties.

After discussion, the Board moved to APPROVE adding the Indiana Professional Recovery Program, (IPRP) to their list of Board Approved monitoring organizations.
